“ MaryAnn was my dear friend of 40+ years, was a joyful, sassy, incredibly wise woman and had a gift to gab; she could talk to everyone and anyone, including the Pope. She was such a good woman with incredible humor and personality. We went on so many retreats together thru the years, took so many classes, hung out and spent hours just talking about our kids, family, sharing thoughts and giving each other advice. She loved her family dearly and enjoyed every moment with her grandchildren. For several years Mary Ann, her husband Bob, myself, my Mother and my friend Bill took classes at Duns Scotus. Those classes were some of the best I ever took; for some reason, she and I always ended up laughing uncontrollably, much to the distress of the people we came with. The Friars never said anything to us, in fact they never lost a beat in teaching. We had many great memories and I'm so grateful for that! I loved her dearly and will miss her greatly!
