

Mary Jane Grozenski

August 21, 1924 - October 3, 2008

Mary Jane died peacefully, surrounded by her family, on October 3, 2008 at the age of 84. She was born August 21, 1924 to the late Samuel and Anna Abraham. She was married to Romin J. Grozenski in 1943 and they enjoyed 64 years of wedded bliss. Predeceased by her beloved Romin in 2007, theirs was a marriage that withstood the test of time. They lived most of their lives in Detroit where they founded and managed Romin Iron & Metal in which Mary maintained a very active role as secretary/treasurer. Mary's love for her four children was abundant, unconditional, and unending. Her presence and generosity as Matriarch of the Abraham clan was immeasurable. Her love for pinochle, crosswords, and casinos kept her very busy in her later years. She looked forward to spending time each summer at her cottage in Lexington. Mother of four children, predeceased by her daughter Florence Flis and survived by John (Kathleen) Grozenski, Deborah (James) Boisvert, and Elizabeth (Michael) Boyd. She is survived by eleven grandchildren: Dominic (Shelly), Karen (Jeff), Christopher (Akiko), Jeff, Abby, Marcus, Eric, Romin, Gregory, Sam, and Alex; and four great-grandchildren, Jessica, Ethan, Camille, and Natalie.

Mary was predeceased by her siblings: Louis (Helen) Abraham, Virginia (Joseph) Giordano, and Joseph (Patricia) Abraham
