

Mary Lou Bucherri

April 24, 1936 - October 28, 2023

Mary Lou Bucherri, of Macomb Twp., passed away suddenly on Saturday, October 28, 2023, at the age of 87. She was born April 24, 1936 in Detroit, Michigan to the late Nicholas and Nancy Bucherri. Beloved sister of Olivia (the late Walter) Belleville, Paul (Deborah) Bucherri, Gloria Cass, and Christine Mack. Loving aunt of Francine (Greg) Driscoll, Robert (Maryann) Belleville, Linda Tobin, Leann Jones, Denise Bucherri, Paul Bucherri Jr., Scott Cass, Branden Mack, the late Steven Belleville, and the late Christopher Tobin. Also survived by her loving niece and Goddaughter Elaine (Paul) Wagner, many loving great nieces, great nephews, and friends. Recently predeceased by her beloved sister Nancy (Henry) Christie.

Mary Lou attended and graduated from Annunciation High School in 1955. She would go on to further her education at Wayne State University where she received her Bachelor's and Master's in teaching. Her first teaching position was at Star of the Sea and then Grosse Pointe North and Grosse Pointe South. Mary Lou loved spending time with her friends at The Red Hats and Italian Cultural Center. In her earlier years, Mary Lou was very active in kid's summer sports, Special Education, downhill skiing, casinos, traveling, and loved when she had her Yorkshire Terriers. She also loved the color purple, collecting clowns and butterflies, and donating to her favorite charities. A very well-loved woman, Mary Lou will be dearly missed.

Per Mary Lou's wishes, no memorial service will be held.

Tribute Wall

BB

“ I recall the great breakfast's we would go to for Cobblestone Condo's. We would have some laughs and talk about about old times.

Beth Clemens and Julie Bokuniewicz - November 09, 2023 at 07:08 PM