“ I am saddened by the news about Mary. Mary was one of the most gentle people I have ever known. Kind, loving, and sweet. She maintained grace even in the face of adversity in all the time that I knew her. To Mary Lee and all of the family, your loss is indeed heartfelt. I pray that you will find comfort in the arms of one another, knowing that love is the medicine God blessed us with to heal all sorrows.##imported-begin##Robin Mucaria##imported-end##

“ I am so proud I got to know such an incredible person, and one of the strongest people I will ever know in my life. Thank you Aunt Mary I learned so much from you how to be kinder, more forgiving and a stronger person. I believe everyone touches you in some way to make you a stronger person and teaches you a little more about how life really is. Thank you, Aunt Mary##imported-begin##Helena Mucaria##imported-end##
