“ Madge was a very special lady in my life. Through out all the years when I was growing up and to this date you always welcomed me into your home with loving arms, a warm smile, and warm words of encouragement in any situation. Unconditional love, support, and friendship. Your son Gene is like a brother to me. You were an angel here on earth and now you are an angel with God in Heaven.

Madge, you were a very special lady, my second Mom. I am a better person for having you touch my life the way you did. You will always hold a very special place in my heart. Loretta, Marlene, Gene, you have our deepest sympathy for your loss. Please notify me of the Memorial Service via phone or e-mail, Nancy & I would like to attend.

“ Aunt Madge was a joy and a delight to us and all of her extended family. Her presence enriched our lives and while we will miss her we treasure the years we knew her. Her generosity of spirit has extended beyond this life and, for that, we salute her memory.##imported-begin##Rick and Jan Feldmann##imported-end##

“ My Dear "Grams", My Angel, My Friend. You will be dearly missed by your entire family. You have touched each one of us with your kindness, your honesty and your treasured lessons of life. You have helped to shape me into the person I am today and I will be forever grateful. You are with me always and I will never again be afraid of leaving this life, because I know you will be there waiting for me. You have helped so many people in your lifetime and you are still helping people as you watch from heaven. I love you Gram and I will never stop missing you.
