“ Matt was one of the most SELFLESS people I knew, of what I knew of him over the past 20 years. He always had a smile. He was always generous and giving. He made every person he encountered feel seen, feel special, and feel unique. I shared an intrigue for the quirky things in life like he did (which is probably why we remained friends for as long as we did). Not matter how much time passed, every text, message, and meet-up would be like only a couple weeks passed. And I guess I took that for granted as I let too much time pass until it was too late. I am sad that he was taken from us far too soon and far too early as he had so many things he wanted to someday do on this earth. However, I am happy for him that he's no longer suffering or restrained from doing the things he hoped to do someday. Matt, I pray you are taking in all the wonder and magic of this world from above. Please know Nicole and Jenny will love you always and will never forget you!

“ Matthew was a very caring soul with a great big heart. I wish that I had gotten the chance to see him before he passed. He was more concerned about how everyone else was doing than himself. Prayers for his family. Matthew you will be missed.

“ I met Matthew on one of his visits to the hospital. From the moment I met him I knew I had to be his friend. His smile was contagious even though he faced so much uncertainty. Always thinking of others happiness while carrying such a burden of the unknown with his failing health. There will be no more suffering where he is now. We will never be the same. I just wished we had met sooner is what we both would say... but I cherish the friendship we had. Until we meet again my friend... rest easy. Thank you Matt for touching my heart. My deepest condolences to Matt's mom and his brother Al. Heaven received an amazing young man with the sweetest heart. He will be missed. Sincerely Stefanie Leonhard
