“Maureen (and family) I know first hand what it is like to lose a brother in his prime. Far to early, never knowing all he could/would of become, leaving hearts in pieces, and parents that are never the same.

Cherished times will slowly come in to focus and replace tears, and broken hearts, with smiles and warm remembrances of what was for me, and I understand for you, the larger than life man, called brother.

Celebrate his goodness, carry on his traditions, and know the grief will ebb and flow, and of course it will hurt deeply, that's a part of love and loss.

God bless you all during this most difficult time.

Hugs,

Renee' and Ayad George

“ With a heavy heart to say God gained amazing angel . Matthew Kent was one amazing person. Top two favorite memories driving an hour (while living in FL) for Buffalo Wild Wings ... Two - riding on the bike on crappy Michigan roads. You always had a smile on your face . I loved how close you and Maureen were . You're such a good friend . Could always talk to you no Matter how long and when it was. You're going to be truly missed . Thank you for being you !!! My condolences, Love and prayers (healing) to Maureen and the Kent Family.

“ May God rest your soul Matt . My heart is broken for my best friend Maureen who lost her best friend since birth . Also for Ron and Colleen the most loving and supportive parents . I'm praying for the three of you , my thoughts are constantly with you . Matt was blessed to have such a loving family and his family was also blessed for the time they had with him . Matt's smile could light up and room and he was a genuinely kind soul , the kind you don't come across often . I'll never forget his laugh and the countless fun times we had together as kids . It's hard to believe he's not with us anymore . I find comfort in knowing he's at peace in a better place and I hope the family can find comfort in that as well . Matt you will be missed and are loved . Rest In Peace . Love and prayers to the Kent's .

“ The shock that I felt at first has turned into being heartbroken. My heart goes out to Ron, Colleen, Maureen and the rest of the Kent/George family. I've known Ron, Colleen, Matt and Maureen since our kids were very young. Matt was a gift from God, born into a loving, stable family home. Matt and Maureen have always meant EVERYTHING to Ron and Colleen. I hope they take comfort in knowing they provided a wonderful upbringing for Matt. He was humble and kind, priceless qualities to find in a person. Maureen truly was Matt's best friend and loving Sister. This is the most painful thing imaginable for a family and it's terrible pain for all who love and know them. I will remember Matt's smile. HE WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN. My heartfelt condolences to Ron, Colleen, Maureen. Words can't express how sorry I am. Please know that we are here for you. Jesus is with you. I pray you find comfort in HIM and the fact that Matt could not have had a more loving family.

“ Dear Abbey
I just cannot believe or accept the awful news about Matt and wanted to let you know how truly sorry I am. I hope you are holding up ok. Matt and I shared the love of cars and talked on our way in and out very often. He never stopped talking about you and I used to notice the glow in his eyes when he brought up your name. Please accept my sincere condolences to you and all his family. We will miss him.

The legacy of Matt will live on our hearts and in the hearts of everyone who knew him. We have all lost a beautiful smile and a handsome promising young man. “ Ron, Colleen and Maureen

Our hearts are heavy, knowing that Matt is no longer with us. The loss of a son in his prime is just plain wrong; it's beyond the natural order of things. It's not supposed to happen, but it does. It's frightening, disorienting and deeply unsettling for everyone caught in its wide wake

The news of Matthew's loss is heartbreaking. Please know that Linda and I are thinking of you, and that there is boundless love being offered for your family from this side of the family, too.

Your 37 years with Matt is an incredible gift; we know you realize that, and will always be grateful for that.

You have so much to be proud of in Matt's life. And you have made us and all who know you proud, too, because we can see so much of each of you in Matt's wonderful personality, in his character, and sense of humor. In this time of sorrow, mixed with gratitude for the sheer joy of Matt's life, please know we are with you.

Linda and I, on behalf of all the George family, offer our sincere condolence and deepest sympathy on Matt's loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the immortal memories and the comfort in knowing that your loss is felt by many, help you through this difficult time.

Matt was an extraordinary son, brother, uncle and friend to all.
