“ It was great knowing Matt. I remember his smiling face and our great talks when he would come and pick up the vacation checks each May and November from the Metro office. I could always count on him to tell me such great stories and make me laugh. I will miss him dearly.

“ Ron, Kathy, and the entire Kolsalka family: I was sorry to hear of Matt passing. I've known Matt for about 20 yrs. I know that the friendship that we had in this world will be taken up again when I see him in Heaven never to be broken off again. Ron, sometime you just have to bow your head, say a prayer, and weather the storm. The Lord will not put more on you than you can bare. May God bless you all. You have my sincere sympathy and condolences.
