“ *Our hearts are broken at the loss of our dear friend, wise counselor, industrious, ever ready helper and shining example of a devoted husband and father. Dear Max, you may not have been tall of stature,,,,,but you were one Giant of a human being. We have loved you so much and will miss you more than we can express. Though we deeply grieve your loss, we fervently pray that our Loving God is even now rewarding you abundantly for your caring commitment to your vocation as husband, father, neighbor and friend, and for doing your important life's work,,,,,making things better or easier for others. To Rosaria and all the children, grandchildren and extended family, we hold out our arms to embrace you with comfort and love. Know that we will always be here for you. You are forever in our hearts.
