“ I live in the Millcreek Condominiums. I do not know Maxine well, but anytime I ran into her at the stores, she always had a smile, kind words and a lovely laugh. I knew one of her greatest treasures was her family. I was saddened to see her struggle with illness, but the lovely smile and Maxine's kindness will always be in my heart. 'When you are sorrowful look again in your heart, and you shall see that in truth you are weeping for that which has been your delight.' (Gibran)

“ Maxine was an Angel of Mercy and Compassion whose strong faith, kindness and genuine spirit of giving was felt by her patients, her friends and her family. Maxine was a true Servant of the Lord, who gave from the heart and found joy in doing so. It was not uncommon for her to bring patients (with transportation issues) to "Dr. Tom's/Dr. Frank's" office or to/from Bon Secours and back home for a pre-op visit or following a procedure. Dr. Tom & Dr. Frank. Day (and Ruth) appreciated not only her efficiency and sense of humor, but also how she treated the patients with respect and dignity. She was one of a kind. How blessed we were to have known and loved her; how happy for Maxine that she is now in the Arms of her Dear Lord. Thank you, Maxine, for who you were for so many. Blessings to Maxine's family; you will be in our prayers in the days ahead.
