“ I was one of the ladies he called his daughter to, he called me his adoptive daughter and often referred to me as Sharon the daughter who lost. I am so sorry you're finding out about his passing so late in this life, it is now June 7 and I see that he passed away March 28 of this year, I am deeply saddened deeply deeply saddened for I would drive past his house every two weeks and he would never be home, and I knew we had a fear of the outbreak that was going on with the Covid. But I always thought he was with his love Betty I believe that was her name. How I would love to talk to her. We kept in touch by phone a lot of times we would message each other and leave each other messages .I met him through grief share, without his courage and his strength I would not be here. He is an inspiring soul of this life. I regret that I did not get to say goodbye. I love you dad

“ Merle was a dear friend to our family. We shared many special occasions with Merle over the years and made many cherished memories. Merle had an infectious laugh and a love for always learning new things. Merle was definitely the kind of guy that could make friends wherever he went. I admired his strength and resilience to keep going and to keep learning and exploring new things no matter what life throws at you. Rest In Peace Merle. Thank you for the memories. You will be missed. ❤️

“ Merle and I met about five years ago when he attended a class I was teaching. I fell in love with him. He called me his daughter and loved my husband as well. We looked forward to our evenings out to dinner or him coming to visit. He always made me laugh-I so loved his laughter. He was a history buff and would share something that happened in that day decades ago. He was so proud to be a WW II vet and shared memories with my husband since they both served in Germany. He lived thru many tragedies but had such a positive attitude and great faith. He always complicated me and my husband on being a good Christian couple. I will strive to live up to his pride in us. I cherished his love. He was a very special man and enriched our lives so much. Paddy and Don Laske

“ Merle was my beloved cousin and I have many wonderful memories of him. His mother was my "Aunt Josie" and he took excellent care of her. We spent Holidays and many other occasions together. He was fun-loving & was like a "Ray of Sunshine" to be around. He would give tidbits of advice now and then. I heard that he was referred as "Merle the Pearl of Wisdom" by his friends and that was appropriate. He was very kind and understanding and will be missed by all those who were blessed to know him. Very Lovingly, Jean Crafton
