“ *Mary Jo and family,
I can't tell you how sorry we are to have heard about Mike's passing. Both of you have been in our thoughts and prayers since we heard about Mike's illness.*

We have many good memories about the four of us sharing the births of all of our children, in general just spending a lot of good times together during those years.

I am sorry that we lost touch for several years but you both were in our thoughts.

I am not sure you remember, but as a wedding gift Mike painted a large oil painting of Shirley and Me and we still have that picture 57 years later. It is just to bad we no longer look 57 years younger.

At holloween, when our grand kids were younger, we told them all about the MARS CANDY MAN named Mike and how all the kids loved getting full sized candy bars.

I wish we were able to be with you during this time but we have commitments this next week that can't be changed. Please know that You and your family are in our prayers.
