“ Really saddened of hearing of the death of my friend Mike. We were friends and room mates in school, and though we didnt keep in touch after, we were friends forever. I saw him lastly at our 50th reunion, and we hung out some, it was like he never changed. I will hold his memory in me till the day I die.

Mike and I met on our first day in West End. He was quiet, contemplative, strong-willed, and compassionate ...a great friend at the hum and later on . We were supposed to get together in May of 2019 but were eclipsed by the pandemic. He was in Michigan so getting together was tough...we spent time on Founder's day celebrations and at a class party at my house. His sister Kate sent me a picture of Mike, Pete Raftery, David Hill and me when his Uncle John took us to Captain Starn's in Atlantic City for Lobster. I have many great memories of a brother who I respected and will love forever.

Thank you Joe and David for your very kind and thoughtful comments. My brother Mike was indeed a very special person. Not someone that was easy to get to know, but if you where fortunate to be born into his family, you had a friend, a brother and a special guardian angel that was always there when you need him. I will miss him dearly.
