“ Dad this is from your favorite little turd ,

I regret we only had a few years to know each other. but the few years we had it felt like I've known you my whole life and thank you so much for always stepping up and giving me great advice and guidance you always treated me like I was the daughter that was lost in the storm. I love you and appreciate you so much and you will be loved and missed forever. I love you and orders from headquarters be at peace.

You are loved and never forgotten xoxoxox

“ I love Michael with everything that I am, he is the love of my life and I will miss him till the day I die. We had our troubles but he was the best husband, so loving and giving. There will never be another man like him. He will be forever missed by those he loved and loved him back. Goodbye my king until we are together again.
