“ Mike was such a wonderful, fun fellow. I've known him for about 53 years.
I'm happy to think he will be joining his beautiful wife, Loretta.
There will be a huge Jaycee celebration in heaven tonight. Love and best wishes to his children and their families.

“ Our Senior Center family is so sorry to hear about Mike's passing. Mike was an active member of the Shelby Township Senior Center for many years. Whether he was donating things for our flea market, including his beloved Mickey Mouse collectibles, or joining us at one of our events, he was always so kind to everyone he met. He loved to play cards and was a valued voice on our Senior Center Steering Committee. Above all, he spoke so highly of his family, particularly of a granddaughter who frequently helped him at home.

On behalf of everyone at the Senior Center, our most sincere condolences on the passing of a truly wonderful gentleman.

“ Many memories of younger days with your Dad & Mom. I will always remember him by Mickey & Minnie. When he worked at Lakeside Disney store I was impressed. Mr & Mrs P were there for multi events & he will always have a special place in my memories. Now he and Mrs P. are together again. Your family is in my thoughts & prays.

“ We were great friends for many years with both Mike and Loretta. Now Mike has left us to be united with his beautiful Loretta. We will greatly miss the laughter and great conversations we had over the years, especially when we worked at MichCon. Those were really fun times.

God Bless you Mike and your beautiful Loretta!
