“ I give you this one thought to keep-
I am with you still-I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift, uplifting rush of quiet birds ion circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not think of me as gone-
I am with you still-in each new dawn.###imported-

“ On October 13th 1985 a little boy named Michael Schultz came into our lives. He had a rough start, but he was a strong fighter. Through out the years he had many hills & valleys, but with the grace of god he survived.

Bud had an adventurous spirit and was willing to take on any new project within reason and he did it with enthusiasm.

His father spurred him on to have fun and be happy. He was a cub scout and made a race car. I don't know if he won the race but he sure tried.

When we went to Disney World he was so inquisitive that he wanted to explore on his own, consequently he wandered off and we lost him. After frantically searching, we found him enjoying an ice cream with security.

We went to a race track in Atlanta and they had a car that would do 70 mph in 30 seconds, he wanted to drive the car, so I let him. He was so thrilled that he drove it several times, you can imagine my shock when I read the sign stating that anyone with a heart condition shouldn't drive the car. I could go on and on about Bud, he was a joy to our lives that will never be replaced.

He had a surgical procedure when he was 6 weeks old that was 9 hours long. When he came out, Grandma Char and I stood over his bedside telling him how much we loved him, 21 years later we repeated that scenario. On January 16, 2006 The Lord called our little angel home. Now he is in heaven with Grandpa Don and Nanny. WE LOVE YOU BUD.##imported-begin##Granny Carolyn##imported-end##

“ God's Garden

God looked around his garden and he found an empty place. And then he looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face. He put his arms around you, and lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best. He knew that you were suffering, He knew you were in pain. He knew that you would never get well on earth again. He saw the road was getting rough, and the hills were hard to climb. So he closed your weary eyelids, and whispered "Peace be thine". It broke our hearts to lose you. But you didn't go alone. For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.##imported-begin##Author Unknown##imported-end##
