

Michael T. Tupiak

September 16, 1966 - February 2, 2025

It is with profound sadness that we announce the sudden passing of Mike T. Tupiak on February 2, 2025, at the age of 58, at McLaren Hospital in Mt. Clemens. Born on September 16, 1966, to Robert and Dorothy (Henson) Tupiak, Mike's vibrant spirit touched the lives of many.

A beloved husband, Mike shared 27 loving years with his wife, Lori K. (Gave) Tupiak. He was a devoted and proud father to his cherished son, Tyler. Mike held a special bond with his dear mother-in-law, Shirley (the late Lloyd) Gave, and was a beloved brother-in-law to Debbie (Dennis) Scomazzon, Dennis (Cheryl) Harms, and Brian (Darlene) Gave.

Mike's warmth and humor were a joy to his nieces and nephews: Danny (Allasandra), Danielle, Douglas (Jordan), Kristi (Rob), Kyle (Ashley), Cordell (Aubri), Natalie, Samantha, and Katelyn. He was a proud great-uncle to Seth, Gabriella, Giselle, Giada, Giancarlo, Evelyn, and Willow. His love extended to his siblings, Bobby and Patrick Tupiak, as well as the memory of those who predeceased him, including his parents, Robert and Dorothy, and his brother, Kevin Tupiak.

Mike dedicated much of his career to C & M Manufacturing in New Baltimore, where he was known for his dedication and work ethic. Outside of work, Mike was an ardent sports fan, especially passionate about baseball and football.

Music was his constant companion, and he cherished the times spent drawing with his nieces and nephews, creating memories filled with laughter and love. His farewell to friends and family was always memorable, often punctuated with his famous parting words, "Thanks for coming."
