

Micheal Shannan Willis

January 5, 1983 - August 25, 2020

Micheal Shannan Willis 37, of Lapeer, Michigan was born on January 5, 1983 in Detroit, Michigan gained his wings on August 25, 2020 at 4:00 p.m. He is survived by his son Micheal Willis II New Baltimore, his parents William and Patricia Bonnick (Willis) Algonac, sister Jennifer Bonnick (Michael Brecht II) (nephews Michael Brecht III, Bryson Brecht) Chesterfield, grandmother Donna Willis Clinton Township, Uncle David (Gina)Willis of Norfolk, VA, Great Aunt Kathrine Silliman of Harvard, IL and his girlfriend Racheal Miller of Lapeer. Preceded in death by Grandfather John Willis, grandparents Francis & Ruth Bonnick. He was truly blessed to have so many extended family that he did not know where the blood stopped and the loved ended.

Micheal had a love of life, singing his heart out to anyone who would listen. His jokes and pranks often had us shaking our heads. The love for his son was the first person where he truly learned was unconditional and never ending. When he finally got the adult concept, he strived and succeeded in life where he found happiness and self-love in himself, which he projected onto those around him. Anyone who met him loved him. Talk, Talk, Talk was the best way to describe him. From the moment he learned to talk, he never shut up and no one in earshot ever got a word in. Micheal would walk into a room a stranger and by the time he left, everyone knew him and loved him.

Dates and times will be added for the Memorial Mass and the Burial.

“ The first band I was ever in (2005). He was the lead singer. I remember him going to bat for me to be the drummer in the band . He was the life of practices. I had such a blast with him. I'll never forget the first time being pulled over for speeding , him and I blasting the music of the Beatles and singing and just was going a little too fast .. miss those days. I had only wished I'd had made more of an effort in the recent years to reach out and be a better friend. I will miss him and his ability to make me smile.

“ Mike your mom is right. You sure did love to talk. You were always a happy dude but drove mom nuts when you were younger. I watched you grow from a mouthy little man to an awesome grown man who was so very full of love and kindness. You are so going to be missed. Love you and your family. Your adopted Aunt Jan
