“ Dear brother Murray, you will be missed by many. But I remember when we lived on Helen in Detroit & I watched at the door as you got out of the taxi on leave wearing your Navy uniform so young & handsome. Mom & dad rolled up the carpet for a party to celebrate you being home. I was only seven old, All the card games & all that you & ofGrace did for the care of our mom. Your work is done here & all the suffering you endured these past years are over & now you can rest in the arms of Jesus free from the problems of this world. you will be in my thoughts & prayers forever. Your sister Patricia
