“ Nancy you are going to be missed, you were a true friend over so many years. All your friends are going to miss your honesty, caring and concerns that you had for them. You were a masterful prankster , I enjoyed everyone of them. Your dedication to your volunteer work for the meals on wheels program, even when you were on oxygen you were out delivering meals. You always made sure everyone was taken care of even up to the planning of your funeral. You will be missed, but, never forgotten. St. Peter watch your back the prankster is coming. GOD BLESS Nancy and her family in this difficult time.

“ Cousin Nancy was a special woman who became my cousin through her first cousin Jerry. She was such a positive influence on all who knew her. She could calm my husband with calming phrases (and we all knew she was the only one I know who could do that. She cherished her family and showed us all how to love and serve. Her husband Dick and daughter Carrie became my cousins too. We traveled ,we sang, we laughed, we cried. I will miss her on this earth and by God's Grace I'll join her. My sincere condolences to the family and all her many friends and family. With love, Jeanie and Clinton
