“ Nancy and I although nearly a generation apart had very similar families and shared some of the trials and tribulations of our youth. We had similar thoughts, problems, etc growing up and I think we began thinking as brother and sister. I was her sounding board and she was always listen to by troubles. She was always available for my son and myself. A true and admirable friend. She will be remembered both sadly and warmly through my remaining years. God has given the rest she so richly deserves.

“ I am very thankful to have been a friend and a neighbor of Mrs. Turk. Ever since I was a young boy she was always there for me and my family, from picking me up from school to cooking me a meal and I will always appreciate the many times she had us over for a Christmas party. She was a very talented and caring lady and will be deeply missed. Our deepest sympathy and prayers for the Turk family.
