“ Anybody that knows Nathan knows that he was the kindest person around. I went to school with him since 1st grade. We used to be friends growing up in elementary school and kind of fell off from there. However, whenever we did talk in classes or in the hallways we always picked right back up as if we saw each other every day. Thank you Nathan for being who you were and may God bless you and your family.

“ My deepest condolences to the Schroeder Family. May you find comfort in the memories you've shared together an in the "God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation.(2Corinthians 1:3,4) The comfort from God gives us hope, for his "thoughts toward us is not of calamity, but thoughts of peace to give us a future and a hope" as mentioned in Jeremiah chapter 29 verse 11. May your family find comfort in knowing that soon God will act to provide a better future for people of every land and he will relieve us of all causes of suffering we face today including death.(Revelation 21:4;Isaiah 25:8) My sincere thoughts and prayers, Glenda Hawkins

“ I'll never forget Elementary School, and Cub Scouts, and the time you went into the bathroom before show and tell to turn your clothes around before you played some Kris Kross for everyone, i was so jealous. All the fun that was our H.S. drafting class. The times at Autozone when you were working and a couple of us were being stupid kids and stealing stuff and you'd act like you didn't know, or you'd give us the heads up if they were cracking down. Things you didn't have to do that could have got you in trouble too, but u still were looking out for friends. always a good guy, and a good friend. RIP Nathan.

“ I have a few memories of nay nay. He was at all the sad/happy moments that related to our family. Births, bday parties and such. Such a great man. Funniest memory I have is trick or treating on year at his house. He had this cool costume with a pencil. Freaked everyone out. I also remember the massive amount of hair gel or spray he put in. His hair never moved. Most of all his laugh. People live on through memories and love. He will be greatly missed, but never forgotten.
