“ Neva and Jim were often visiting our family in Orlando, before they headed to their winter retreat south of us. Norma and Layton (and whoever was still at home) always looked forward to having them here. Neva was the best at keeping in touch, and I was so thrilled when she joined Facebook, because it felt like we could touch a little closer than the miles allowed. Layton was the firstborn and Neva was the last of Helen and Arthur. I think I am correct on this. This to me is a powerful thought. What a reunion in heaven is happening now! My heart goes out to the wonderful extended family out there. She will be missed. Judy Green Middle of the Layton and Norma Green tribe.
