Dear Alquiza family: I am so sorry for your loss. Although I haven't seen Nicholas in many years, I will always remember him as a ray of sunshine -- always smiling, inquisitive and full of life. Rest in Peace.

“ I've only known Nick for about a year now and didn't see him too often, but whenever I did see him we always had a great time. He was one of the most welcoming and kind-hearted people that I have ever met. I always enjoyed hanging out with him and joking around. He will be missed. My condolences go out to all of his family and friends.

“ Sometimes when Nick would work days to afternoons he would have a couple hours in between off. He would stop over and visit and nap on the couch. We looked forward to those visits. Once I told Nick how much I enjoyed a particular music artist and he brought me a cd he made up of the artist. He was so thoughtful and just a joy to be around. Love you Nick.

“ Our memories of Nick, our nephew as a child to a young man will always be cherished. Nick had uncanny way as a child to win our heart. When he was 4-5 years old, he told me "I'm not bad, I just make mistakes".

He grew to be a polite, respectful person who showed his love to his parents, aunts & uncles, brothers & sisters, cousins and nephews & nieces. He will be greatly missed.

You are one of the missing link of our family chain and will now join grandpa, grandma & uncle Rudy. May God blessing all to accept life process and keep our memories alive.

“ I’ll never forget December 31, 2014. I was having a particularly uneventful New Year’s Eve celebration in Detroit with some friends, and I walk into The Well Bar and who do I see but Nick! It was such a random run-in, but it totally cheered me up to see a friendly face. Nick was a nice guy who always had a smile and a laugh. From joking about his best man speech at Aubrey and Adam’s wedding to that night, our conversations were always enjoyable. I am sending thoughts and prayers to the entire Alquiza family. He will be missed.
