Nick was born in Detroit, Michigan on January 6, 1923. He grew up on the east side of Detroit along with four sisters and five brothers. He moved to Grosse Pointe and graduated from Grosse Pointe in 1941. Nick played the piano and still enjoys a sing-a-long.

Nick joined the US Navy in 1941 and served as a medic on submarines and support vessels in the South Pacific during World War II and finished up his service at the Philadelphia Naval Yard in 1945.

Nick and Mary, his late wife of 71 years, were married in February 1944 at St. Paul's Catholic Church. They lived in St. Clair Shores from 1948 to 2004, where they raised two sons Robert and Nicholas. They have four grandsons and nine great-grandchildren.

Nick worked most of his career as a sales and marketing representative for the Ex-Cell-O Corporation and later as a sales consultant in the family business.

Nick and Mary officially became Arizona snowbirds in 1987 and spent their winters there until 2011. Nick's hobbies were hunting, card playing, coin collecting and Happy Hour. But most important Nick enjoyed being with his family and friends.
