“ Uncle Norb as we always called him, would come to visit us when we were young with his dear friend, my Uncle Ted Smyk. We always called him " Uncle Norb" as he treated me like a niece. He was an upbeat caring man, who I kept in touch with off and on through the years. Probably not as much as I should have. He was generous, fun and caring man. who always made me laugh. He will always be in my memories and my heart. God Bless him. May he rest in peace.
