“ Your Dad's lot in life was a caregiver. Not everyone understood that back then. He gave his life to taking care of family. His Grandmother. ..Mother and than his kids. Many people go thru life not leaving any footprints. His mark was his wonderful caring kids. I'd say he died a rich man! My love to all.

That was beautiful Beverly...thank you so much! He was definitely one of a kind, maybe misunderstood, maybe different than what people would say the "normal" is but he did the very best he knew how and that is more than enough for me! He loved us and he loved his grand kids. I'll never forget his smile and his big personality. He could talk to anyone about anything...

I'm deeply sad to hear Norm has passed away. He was a wonderful friend to me for over 15 years. I will greatly miss him. He was such an insightful kind, loving person. He will be dearly missed by many. I can't imagine life without him but will always remember him and the advice he gave me throughout my life, he cannot be replaced. My blessings to his family and loved ones. He will forever be missed.
