“ Elizabeth and family,
I was so sorry to hear of Oswald's passing. I just learned of it on Halloween. He was such a wonderful, spirited man, and you and he were the perfect couple. Lathrup would not be the great city it is without you two. Sending you a giant hug right now.

“ Andrea and I will greatly miss our friend Oswald...his cheerful greetings and his quick smile. We also will dearly miss seeing him tending to his beloved gardens, often with Elisabeth by his side. I will especially miss our occasional discussions on subjects both great and small...for Oswald had a sage-like knowledge of many topics. Yes, we will miss our dear neighbor and friend...as we say goodbye, for now, to "Der Garten Maestro."

"Fare thee well" Oswald...fly with the wings of Noah's dove..."
