“ Our deepest sympathy to Don, Greg, Brian and the family on Pam's passing. She was such a good neighbor when we lived next door in Troy. We still hang the Christmas ornaments she made us on our tree every year and always remember her then. We have been out of touch since we moved away, but we remember her fondly.

“ I will always remember Pam with that wonderful smile she seemed to always have on her face! Love you Pam! :)
To Don, Greg, Brian and the rest of her family and friends may all the wonderful memories that you shared with Pam help you through this most difficult time.
Although through time, the pain will lessen....we will never forget.
