“Condolences to the Pam's family. Please be assured of God's promise that one day we will see our loved ones again happy and healthy, John 5:28, 29 says, "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." I pray this promise along with loving memories of Pam fill your heart with comfort and peace.

“I worked with Pam at C-E and she was a great co-worker. I really enjoyed the times that we spent working on Chevy. Pam will definitely be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with Pam's family during these difficult times.

“ I too am a co-worker of Pam's sister, Barb. I did not personally know Pam, but if she was anything like her sister, she was indeed a good woman. Our thoughts and prayers go out to both Barb and Judy, (her surviving sisters), as well as other family too. May God comfort your hearts in this time of loss. Treasure the memories you have and keep them close to your heart.

“ I work with Pam's sister Barb. I never knew Pam personally but thought I did just with the wonderful stories Barb told me of her. We are so very sorry for your loss. No words can express how we feel. We are here for you today, tomorrow, always. Rest in Peace Pam.

I too did not know Pam, but being a friend to Barb and a co-worker, I feel sorrow for they're family. Death is always a sad song, but hopefully Barb remembers all the happy songs she and her sister had together. Barb, we love you, and your family here at Reliable awaits your return.

“ Dear Pamela Devine family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Pamela Devine. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes pain and grief and sometimes it seems unbearable. The Scriptures contain comfort that can assist us during times of distress. The ransom of Jesus and the hope of seeing my loved one again in the resurrection brought me comfort. I would like to share these three scriptures with you to give you comfort John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Romans 15:4. May the God of comfort give you peace and rest.
