“ Mrs. Pam was truly a treasure! She worked in the office at lighthouse elementary where I went. Whenever I was having a bad day, she would NEVER HESITATE to take care of me. She had the best smile and the most contagious laugh. She has touched so many lives, including mine. She will NEVER be forgotten❤️

“ I worked with Pam for many years at Lighthouse Elementary. She was always a friend from our first meeting. She was a working mom much like myself and we shared many proud family stories about our children. She was always a ray of Sunshine on so many Michigan cold gray days. Many, many children and staff members will always have fond memories of Pam. We were lucky to have her, and I thank God for the years I shared friendship with her. May her family be comforted in the tremendous love and happiness she had with all of you. Sincerely, Lore Redlowsk

Beautiful in Blue - September 07, 2021 at 12:00 AM

“ In this thing called life.....we meet people and some people just leave an imprint on us like no other person can. Miss Pam was one of those people and am very thankful that our paths crossed when I worked at Lighthouse Elementary with her for 12 years. She cared for those kids, each and everyone of them and I know that with her dance studio it wasn't any different. Those were HER kids and their lives will be all the better because of her. It's those little things that make the difference. Miss Pam...thank you for the imprint you left on me. It was a true pleasure working with you and you will be very much missed and it's not good bye...its until we meet again. Hugs to her family!
