“ A poem for Mom:::::

Wonderful Mother

*God made a wonderful mother,
A mother who never grows old;
He made her smile of the sunshine,
And He molded her heart of pure gold;
In her eyes He placed bright shining stars,
In her cheeks fair roses you see;
God made a wonderful mother,
And He gave that dear mother to me.*

Love you Mom..##imported-begin##Chris Still##imported-end##

“ Pat was not only a mother to me, she was my best friend. I will always hold in my heart the times we shared. She loved everyone with everything she had, even when people did her wrong she forgave them and helped them in anyway she could. I will miss our talks over coffee and hanging out at Big Boy or her dragging me to the store because she just had to "use the coupon and only wanted to get one thing". She never met a stranger and was always willing to listen and give advice to anyone that neded it. I miss her with all that i am and i pray that my daughter grows up to be as exceptional as she was.

“ I'm deeply saddened to hear of Pat's passing. I enjoyed the time we spent in High School. I'm glad that I attended our class's 40th reunion last summer & had a chance to spend some time with her. She did such a wonderful job on our name tags. It wasn't until after the reunion that I learned that she had to endure intense physical pain while she completed them. This was truly a labor of love from Pat to her classmates. I'll never forget her.###imported-begin##Dan Kaller###imported-end##

“ God Saw You...
by Unknown

*God saw you getting tired,
When a cure was not to be.
So He wrapped his arms around you,
and whispered, "Come to me".
You didn't deserve what you went through,
So He gave you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best
And when I saw you sleeping,
So peaceful and free from pain
I could not wish you back
To suffer that again.*

I will miss you always my treasured and faithful loving friend!##imported-begin##Dawn Griggs##imported-end##
