“ I very much remember the day I met Mrs. Dalka. I was to see her on a weekday to do some trimming of her trees, got there about 10:20, which I was to meet her at 10:30... She was in the driveway beside the house, I mentioned her son Tom had sent me, and asked her if she'd waiting long. She said "No, I've been working on my plants around back"... As I looked at the trees she showed me, as I looked through her yard, she had a tasteful look to her yard, not a lot of bushes which would be overwhelming, but quite many to keep one busy.

When I got through with the work, she seemed so pleased. Then she mentioned her next door neighbor may want some work done also, but this seemed to me not until she was well satisfied that then referred me... Nonetheless, was so kind to bring me water while I worked, even when I came back to do the next door job. We spoke about her family, her children ofcourse. So sweet of a lady, always smiling as we spoke of anything... I often have thought of her, as Tom and I are good friends. I also have met his brother, Rick, he once allowed me to use his trailer. As a matter of fact, I used his trailer to do his Mom's work. Thank you again Rick...

Mrs. Dalka had to have as tough as she was beautiful, having raised four sons. When she paid me she had given me more money than I had quoted, didn't look at the check, then I got in my vehicle and noticed the amount was a bit much... got back out and told her, and she said; "Yes, I know", I reached in my pocket, she then said; "I already made out the check"...
