“ My Boughton family was blessed to spend many Thanksgiving holidays with Pat, Bob, Rob and Jeff at the Thomas Newman house. Pat's sweet potato casserole was the best and was as sweet as she always was to us all! We have missed seeing Pat and all of the Kniolas in recent years and were shocked to learn this sad news. Our love and condolences to all of the family.

“ I once wrote Pat a letter on toilet paper from Scotland - more like the tissue paper for gift wrapping. She kept it all of the passing years and showed it to me many years later. I did not get to see her or Bob often through the years, but knew I could connect with her when I wanted, will miss having that addition to my life. Rest in peace Pat, you deserve it. I love you.

“ Pat and Bob visited my mother as she was battling cancer too. They always came at a time most needed. Pat loved my mother my family. She will be sorely missed but, knowing her strong faith in Jesus, she is with Him even now. Her life was a shining example of how we ought to live and treat each other. We love you, Pat.

Pat will be missed for sure.. She was one of the nicest people I've ever met. Pat and I worked together at the law firm. She was always kind and thoughtful, and a joy to be around. I'll always remember her lovely soft voice and constant kindness. I I am happy she did get some time to go to Florida and be with her husband...I will remember her always... Blessings

Pat we miss you, but we find great joy in knowing that we will rejoin you in heaven someday, and that you are now in perfect health, engulfed in God's love. You are a very special person who has great love for God, and an amazing kind and gentle spirit. May God richly bless you and may he provide comfort and peace to your family and loved ones as we mourn the loss of you on earth. Thanks be to God that this loss is only temporary!
