“ Kelly, I remember spending the night at your house and walking up and eating a whole loaf of French toast. Your mom was amazing! Prayers for your family during your loss, you have always had an amazing and loving family!

“ Pat was such a wonderful woman. She was my brother’s mother-in-law and we spent many Christmases with him and Molly and their entire family. So many laughs. Even in the last year Pat would ask me how my sons were doing and would remember details regarding them that only a person who truly cares would remember. She often whispered the sweetest compliments in my ear and we would share a secret or comment. She will be missed. Rest in peace, sweetie, the hard part is over. “ Pat was such an inspiration to me. Since the days that I came riding my bike over to your home on Gainsley, she treated me like one of her own. I remember lively conversations, card playing and awesome meals. She treated my kids with kindness and we all know how much she loved, Steve. I will miss your mom very much and know you all will too. I pray God will give you peace as you go through this time of grief. We love you all, McKeowns, you are family to us!!!

Love, Lenore, Steve, Jake, Kelsey and Stephanie (too)
