

Patricia A. McNabb

September 7, 1930 - November 23, 2024

Patricia Ann McNabb

1930-2024

Patricia A. McNabb of Chesterfield, Michigan passed away peacefully at home in the early morning hours of Saturday, November 23, 2024.

Patricia was born on September 7, 1930 in Detroit, Michigan to her parents Bernard and Mildred Miller.

On May 10, 1952, she married the love of her life, William M. McNabb, who preceded her in death on March 21, 2023. She was also preceded in death by daughter Terese (McNabb) Spybrook. She is survived by her daughters, Laura McNabb, Elizabeth (Gary) Smith, Kathleen (Scott) Yoder, Mary (the late Marc) Boyer, like a daughter, Kaye Rocheleau, devoted goddaughter Susan McInnes and son-in-law Thomas (Petra) Spybrook. She has six surviving grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren, Gary Smith and his children Gary and Ally, John McNabb and his wife Christine and their daughter Morgan, April Reed-Barton and her daughter Madison, Nathan McNabb and his wife Breanna and their two children Isabella and Jaxon, Kyle Boyer – Keela Leath and their two daughters Mia and Korrine, Tricia Williams and her husband Joe and their two children Jayden and Aniya. She is also survived by her brother Ronald (Therese) Miller.

Pat's greatest joy throughout her life was family, and if you were a friend, then you too were also family. Pat enjoyed a full life with her husband Bill. Their married life was one long adventure. They enjoyed traveling, golf, entertaining, family and friends gathered around the dining table, a raucous euchre game, and wine time. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, "grandma great", sister, auntie and friend. She enjoyed cooking, knitting, reading and quiet time in prayerful reflection with the Lord.

Pat is already deeply missed. She leaves with one piece of advice, given to her by a dear friend... "Remember Pat, nothing in life ever stays the same".

The family would like to acknowledge the special, loving care provided to mom by her eldest granddaughter, April, a hospice nurse.

“ Dear Mom, Happy Heavenly Thanksgiving; my first one without you. For the next year, there will be lots of firsts that we will be traversing through. I miss you so much and will miss our fun banter we had back and forth with each other. I will forever say how blessed and grateful I am to not only have you as mom, but that relationship was 69 years! I have so much to thank you for, but I believe the best trait you passed on to me was your strength. I have and continue to call on that for myself, so thank you. I have so many beautiful memories to look back on when I need a smile or a hug. Say hello to all of our loved ones. This isn't good-bye, but so long until we meet up again. Love you forever, Beth.

“ Will miss you dearly Godmother. When doing dishes yesterday, I noticed that I was using one of the dishcloths that you made. It brought tears to my eyes. I know that you will be fine and at peace, you have Bill, Teri and family to greet you at the pearly gates. Love you. Susan and Gregg McInnes and family.
