“ So many memories of Pat that it would be tough to choose just one. I will miss all the fun shopping trips, quick movies or grabbing a bite to eat, even if it was just Sonic. I'll miss the holiday dinners, the rice puddings and endless hours sitting in the garage just "chit chatting." Daryl, Mike, Donna & family; We'll be praying for you today and in the days ahead

“ I have such a fond teary pain of Pat's passing. Being in the hospital with Covid hurt so much I couldn't get to the funeral home. Makes me so sad. Pat was my very 1st love back in the 5th and 6th grade. The most beautiful girl at Maybury. So sad and crying thinking about 57 yrs ago. Last chance I got to see her was in the early 80's and was still just as beautiful. Pat you are missed so very much. You are the 2nd dear person and friend that has left in the last couple days. I did love you so much so many decades ago. Hope to reunite someday in Heaven along with my daughter there and others. You meant so very much to me. It may have been over 50 yrs but I never forgot you. God Blessm

“ Pat is the most animated character I've ever met and certainly one of the most influential people in my life. I loved her dearly, she was my bestest friend. Pat had several passions and it showed. She spared no expense in feeding her birds that waited for her daily or her squirrels; they actually would communicate with her. The backyard stands empty and bare now, your wildlife misses you too Pat. She loved cooking and putting together the most amazing dishes and when you'd ask for the recipe, it was always something she made up and called "garbage casserole" and it was literally a little bit of this and that, until it tasted good to you. We shared our own weird sense of humor and tons of secrets, (thank you for taking mine with you, I promise to reciprocate when my time comes.) Our talks on Jesus, Heaven and the life after, will never be forgotten. I'm so happy you're with sweet Jeffrey again. I think your greatest love and passion was for Daryl and Pebbles and it showed with the way you shamelessly spoiled them both. My life has been enriched for knowing you and forever changed for missing you. Love you dearly sister ❤️
