“ Patricia was so very dear to me. She was like a mother and best friend. I loved her deeply. She was kind, generous and loving. I had so many good memories of and with her. I feel blessed that she was with me during the birth of my youngest and I feel simply blessed to have been a part of her life. I am a better person for knowing her. I will see her again where she is now, forever young.

“ Rest in peace Pat. We enjoyed your singing in the choir while parishioners together at St. Silvester Church in Warren. Your smile radiates whenever we saw you at church or the various social functions such as Parish Festival, Fish Fry, Corn Roast and Bake Sales. May God welcome you into your heavenly home and may He watch and protect Rolando, the children, grandkids and great-grands.

“ I met Pat at the Warren city pool, she was very friendly and she joined my Red Hat group afterwards. She was a beautiful woman with a heart  of gold, always thinking and doing for others before herself. I pictured her as an energizer bunny, she never ran out of steam. Always thinking of what she needs to do next or how to help who next.
