“ I remember visiting with Pat and her sister, Barbara when our family would be at family reunions in Detroit. Pat's father, Bob was my father-in-law's brother-(Charles F. Coe).
She was a lovely and kind individual & my husband, Fred thought a great deal of her and her sister. As cousins, in their early years, they were close. God bless, Linda Coe “ *Dearest Richard & Family.

You have our deeply condolences & prayers. Unfortunately we just heard of this news. Our hearts are broken that we were unable to be present with out love & support!
Patty was a sister in Christ & her walk with the Lord was evident. She embodied the fruit of the spirit. Above all she had LOVE to share with much to spare. We thank the Lord fore her life. We are blessed to have been part of her life & the memories that will live on in us forever. This is not good bye, just see you later when God call each of us home too \o/.*
