“ Our deepest sympathy to the Barthel family on the passing of their loved one, Mr. Barthel. God saw him getting so tired, He took him to his eternal home. He must have been proud to know he raised a beautiful family that he could be proud of. May he rest in the loving arms of Jesus. Greg and Marie Ruvolo

“ Dad Barthel as I call him is a wonderful man. Now that he is not with us anymore in body, his memory and spirit grows and magnifies to a clearer vision of him. He is Dad to me because his son of my brother in spirit and brother in Christ as well. Deacon Mike, Mike at the time, we worked together at St. John Hospital in the Respiratory Department. We became close and to his parents as well Mom and Dad. Becky became my goddaughter.

Dad is a simple fellow, mild mannered, always has a kind smile, and a mild and good sense of humor. He is the fellow you wanna be stuck with in a long long trip or journey. A good companion is what I am describing him to be. They (mom & dad) raised their children well with God's guidance and supervision. Their faith is steadfast, strong and sure! No wonder the fruits of their tree (siblings) are blessed by Our Ever Loving Lord. I am sad that he "left" but joyful and sure he is going to be in the arms of Jesus and Ever Loving Father.

He has won the race and finish the course. Dad has done well! In behalf of my wife, Divina, we love you Dad forever! See you later brother dad!

“ I have very fond memories of Mr. Barthel. I was over his house a lot growing up and he always welcomed me with open arms and a smile! I also remember him coming to where Cindy and I worked.... he would come check the fire extinguishers... he always made sure to stop in and say hello! My thoughts are with you Mrs. Barthel, Mike, Wendy, & Cindy and families! He sure was one of the good guys! Condolences from Georgia.
