“ I miss you so much I can't even begin to explain how much I really wish I could have you and gram here. Every time I think about how fast Hailie is growing I always think about you guys and get sad at the thought of not being able to share these memories with you in them. The older I get the more I realize just how important every single thing you've ever taught me really was. To me you have mastered everything there is to accomplish in life and I hope that one day I can be half the person you are. I am the person I am today, and half of that I have you and gram to thank for. You guys were my rock and my other set of parents, I'm so thankful to have been able to have such great guidance growing up from two sets of amazing parents. I wish I could just come over and still be able to just sit down next to you and talk about everything going on in life, I wish I could still just reach out to hug you whenever I need it. I'd do anything to have you both here with me and I can't wait till I see you again. I love you so much and I'm missing you every single day. I hope your both looking down on me and proud of how far I've come in such a short period of time. I will always cherish being with you two every single day of my life growing up and for all that you have taught us throughout the years. You are my everything my "buddy" I love you so so much 💔 😞

“ There are a few individuals as we pass through this life leave an impression, set an example and have an influence on how we should live our life. For me he was one of those individuals. He was a positive role model. Things learned from him, whether by example or advice, will always remain with me. Thank you Uncle Paul.

“ How many hats can a man wear? As it turns he can wear many - both literally and figuratively. Dad wore the hat of a son, a husband, a father, a grandfather, a great grandfather, and a great great grandfather. He performed these responsibilities with ease because of God's love and his total enjoyment of family life. He also wore hats on his head I believe because they kept his head warm in the cooler months, and protected his head in the warm months. It might also have had something to do with his lack of hair!!! My sisters Evette, the late Paulette, and I were blessed that Paul Joseph Beauvais was our father. And we will always be eternally grateful.
