“ I've been lucky enough to have the Kwiatkowski's in my life since birth, so that's a lot of years. My dad (Paul Chervenak) and Uncle Paul grew up together and then enlisted in the Navy together, too. Uncle Paul was always a very special person to me and there is so much about him I will miss. I will miss his excessive adoration of sweets, his uncanny ability to stop by whilst I'm cooking or baking, remembering that dad had a special Manhattan Decanter for just for Uncle Paul's impromptu visits, and I especially will miss his questionable jokes and sense of humor. I have no doubt that Uncle Paul and dad are throwing back Manhattans in the afterlife and generally raising Cain. Have one for me, guys!

“ He was known as the King to me growing up. Can't even begin to recall all the time spent together and memories made. He was more a father figure to me than anyone else in my life and I don't think he knows how much I appreciated that. Lots of joking around and fun times just at the house, around town, or off on a vacation somewhere. Although we hadn't seen each other as often he was and always will be in my heart. Condolences to the entire family, he will be greatly missed. ~ The D'Alimonte Family

“ On behalf of our family, we send our prayers to the family! We will always remember you as a kind, considerate and generous person who was beyond all, an amazing husband, wonderful father, and fierce competitor. It was evident by your actions that you valued and put your family first. Your great example lives on in the legacy you created with your family. You and Mrs. K are God-like role models that We have always looked up to as we are raising our young family.

I will miss you, our conversations about sports, and all of your complimentary words! I love you Mr. K! 💕

“ Even though we were just "fake" relatives, I've absolutely loved being around Uncle Paul all of these years.

As a little kid, I remember trying to get a glimpse inside his mouth to see what a "sweet" tooth looked like (and trying to figure out how someone got one because it looked like it meant you got a lot of extra candy). Until I found out he had a "real" job, as a kid I always thought he was the actor who played Clint Eastwood on TV.

As an adult, I just loved him as a great, easygoing guy, with a wonderful sense of humor, who adored his family. (And the fact that I thought he looked like Clint Eastwood).

Rest in peace Uncle Paul - I'll bet they have some of the best chocolate in Heaven!

“ He was more than just my father, he was my friend. He always put family first, when we were kids and when we started to have our own kids. We will miss our weekly card games and getting paid in nickels and pennies, no matter how much he lost. You will always be part of our lives. You will be missed.

“ Paul was a vibrant representative of the warmth of Christ in our St Therese of Lisieux family, freely casting his smile to so many....and often adding a humorous remark to lighten your day! He will certainly be missed by many! While my heart goes out to Eleanor and the family, rest assured heaven is a bit brighter (and lighter) with Paul's engaging personality now part of it. Confident of his heavenly inheritance, he now is blessed among the saints and sees the face of God!

“ My dearest friend Paul. Paul and I was partners in golf, and bowling. He was a very competitive friend. Any time he beat me in golf, or bowling, you'd think he just won a million bucks. He'd brag about it for a week. He would always give me that great big smile, and say: Well, maybe you can beat me next week. His sense of humor was always there, no matter what. I'll truly miss him. He certainly was a great friend. I'm sending my love to Paul, and his beautiful family.

“ Miss you so much, never thought our visit on Friday afternoon would be the last. However, i am glad God took you home quickly even though unexpectedly a few hours later. You are a wonderful dad and will be in my heart forever. I will always wish i had just 5 more minutes. Susan
