“ Paul was a great friend and crewmember. He was always better than the kind of person we think we are when we are at our best or the kind of person we hope to be. He was always calm during any storm and ready for what life placed on his path.

“ A great flight engineer who reminded me how the crew worked together. Never forget his sacrifice to help save the aircraft in the late 80s. He was a huge part of the 305th to me.

“ There is no better big brother in the world than Paul. Our parents would say 'watch your sister' and he did with such kindness, generosity and humor for his entire life. I am grateful for a lifetime of happy memories we shared in Michigan, Florida and Massachusetts. I wish we were having a lobster dinner right now. Rest in peace Paul. I'll miss you everyday. Love, Linda
