March 26, 1981 - December 16, 2024

Paul Reinhart, a kind and gentle soul whose life touched everyone around him, passed away on December 16th, 2024. Born on March 26th, 1981, Paul was a man of unwavering honor, dedication, and love.

Those who knew Paul would agree—there are not enough words to describe how remarkable he was. His kindness and gentle demeanor left an indelible mark on the lives he touched. Everyone who met him walked away better for it, and the void left by his absence will be deeply felt by all.

Paul's greatest joy and purpose in life were his family. His two beloved sons, Logan (7) and Liam (3), were his pride and joy, his everything. He poured his heart and soul into being the best father he could be, always ensuring their happiness and well-being. Paul's eyes would light up whenever he spoke about his boys, and he worked tirelessly to provide them with a life filled with love and opportunity.

Equally, Paul's devotion to his loving wife, Lisa, was unparalleled. She was the love of his life and his steadfast partner in all things. Together, they built a home filled with love, laughter, and unwavering support. Paul cherished Lisa deeply and made it his mission to ensure she always felt adored and valued. Paul's life was a testament to his values—he was not just a good provider but an extraordinary father and husband. His dedication to his family and his selflessness will serve as an enduring legacy for those who were fortunate enough to know him.

He is survived by his cherished wife, Lisa, his two adoring sons, Logan and Liam, mother Arlene, and brother Mark, in addition to a community of friends and family who will forever hold him in their hearts. Paul's life, though tragically cut short, was a life well-lived, filled with love, honor, and compassion.

“ When my brother, Ralph, and Paul's father died, Paul and Lisa were very generous with offering their house for my brother, Garry, Rod, and Rod's partner Alan, to stay at. Paul made a special fruit drink in his blender for our breakfast. It inspired me to go get a blender so I could have one for my fruit breakfast. Though I saw him only occasionally because I live on the west coast, I was struck by Paul's courteous and generous demeanor. I know for those who knew and love(d) him, he will be missed and remembered. - Tom Reinhart
