“ I will never forget, the day I met Paul. It was a Friday and I was making pizza for a busy store in my community, when this man walks right up to me with his flowing shoulder blond hair and dark sun glasses on; that matched a benni he called a hat. I turned to this gentleman and asked if I could help him. He slowly took off his glasses and looked me dead in the eye and said, Dam good pizza, you made me last week you think can you pull it off again or was that just luck? Not knowing me, I turned and said if I can then your the lucky one now aren't you? At that moment I thought I heard Santa laugh... It was so loud it filled the restaurant and we never forgot each other names and stayed friends from that day. It was a privilege and a honor to know you and your family my dear friend, u will truly miss you. I'm so happy our paths crossed Paul.

“ Paul was such a sweet brother to me and a very dear friend. He shared his love of cars and music with me which bridged the gap of 12 years between us and broadened my interests. Paul loved to tell me the latest about his son Henry and Marianne for they were his life and joy. I am at peace knowing Paul's suffering is over and that he is reunited with his brother and best friend Hank, our mother and sweet sister Linda 🙏🙏🙏🙏 I miss you immensely, Paul, but you are always in my heart ❤️
