“Pauline, although I’ve worked in mental health for several years, I never really got to know you until we moved to the admin building and became cube neighbors. I’m grateful for the time that I did have to get to know and work with you. I enjoyed hearing all the stories you shared with me, and I hope you enjoyed mine!! I remember you would crank up Pharrell’s song “Happy” on your computer and sing along…… I hope you’re cool, comfortable, and “Happy”.

We just spent a week in cancan together got to make just that many more memories with her. Those memories will live on for eternity. “ I met Pauline thru her sister Sharon many moons ago ! Haven't seen her in years , but face book brought us back together. Her laugh , smile and kind hearted soul is what I remember ! You didn't need to be in the same place as her, all you had to do is see her face and you knew a laugh was coming ! Always a kind word and shoulder to lean on for those who needed it ! For those who never got the chance to share a day with her , you sure missed a hell of a ride ! God only takes the best and I guess he really needed you to bring some laughter up above . Rest in peace and keep that laugh rolling .

Love you, Lady! <3

“ Pauline my dear friend, so many fun memories, so many laughs (and some tears) over 42 years. I will always remember you were the first person to know I was pregnant. You gave me a bit of advice and you were right. Thank you for that. I will miss you Linka, and I will see you on the flip side.

“ When my mother died, Pauline asked me if there was anything she could do, say or get me. I told her a new set of eyeballs, mine were soggy and red. She walked into the funeral home, took my hand and placed a pair fake eyeballs in it. I needed that laugh and I needed that love at that moment! In a few days we will be in the very same funeral home. I wish I could hand her new life. Love you girl!

“ I met Pauline thru her sister Sharon, who I have know for over 30 yrs. we had our own group of friends and then Pauline came along. She was so funny to be around and her laugh was so infectious. She became part of our circle of friends, came to all our pool parties and Euchre parties, and thank you Pauline for never yelling at me if I played the wrong card. She always had my back when it came to Euchre. I will see you when God wants me to be your Euchre partner, promise I will be better then.
