My deepest sympathy upon the news of the death of your Mother. I know she is with your Dad looking down from heaven with love and pride in her two sons. As all mothers, she is a saint praying on your behalf.

And, her physical presence will be missed. Both of you will also be in my prayers.

For Christmas, Jesus received a beautiful gift...the company of Pauline.

But most of all, the world received two wonderful priests from a loving woman.

“ Dear Reverend Fathers,

We have never met, but my husband and I always chatted with Pauline at Lourdes while visiting our mom, Julia Bartus, on the same wing. Pauline always enjoyed our visits. One time I told her the only Polish words I knew, and she commended me on my Polish. Another time, after I saw one of you visiting, I asked if her son was a priest, and she proudly said, "Both of my sons are!"

We were surprised and saddened to read of her death. We'll miss seeing Pauline's smiling face on our visits to Lourdes. Both of you and Pauline are in our prayers. God Bless You all.

“ *Dear Tom and Jerry,
I am very sorry to hear of the passing of your mother. Unfortunately I cannot be there in person to extend this to you. I do particularly remember a trip back from the farm and stopping at her place to eat some lasagna she had prepared. It was the best i've ever had.

“ Tom

Please know that both you and your brother Jerry are in our thoughts and prayers. Knowing the anguish you were feeling on Christmas Eve when your Mom was in the hospital in pain, you should now feel great relief that she is with Our Lord in Heaven and no longer suffering. She suffered enough, as did both you and your brother, knowing she had Alzheimers these last years. She was so proud of both of you and can now look down keeping a watchful eye from above! We are glad we had a chance to meet her when you were at our beloved St. Agatha's. We will see you and Jerry over the weekend.##imported-begin##Marsha and Wally Krozek##imported-end##
