“ Patti, Bob & Nancy, I have so many wonderful memories of both your mom and your dad. Your dad always made us laugh, your mom had this way of always making us feel important and grown up when we were kids. I don't ever remember being at the kids table at Aunt Pauline and Uncle Bob's house. Once again they are together, at peace.

“ Bob, Nancy, Patti and Famiy,

Your dear mother and grandmother now is at peace with the Lord. Thank God that her journey has ended. I'm sure the reunion that took place in heaven between her and your dad was very special. They are no longer separated but are together again, now and forever. I remember your 25th wedding anniversary (Bob & Nancy) and how proud they were on that day. I also remember the good time we had at Tom's wedding. I think she and I even had a dance together. I will continue to remember all of you in my prayers and at mass.
