“ Dear Susan and Ostrowski Family:
I was shocked and saddened to learn from ESD staff of Paul's sudden and untimely demise last weekend. Having seen you both at ESD events in recent weeks, this was all the more concern. I also passed the news to Paul's childhood friend/neighbor, Claire Zepeda, who was equally, if not more upset.

May the Lord Almighty grant eternal peace to Paul's soul, and the strength and courage to you to move on.

Let's keep in touch.

With Warm Regards,

“ I'm very saddened to hear of Paul's passing. As a classmate of his at U of D High, it just so happens that I talked to Paul a couple week's ago (for the first time in a number of years) to remind him of our upcoming class reunion this June. I'm glad to have had a chance to reconnect one more time. I still have fond memories of Paul, in full referee regalia, officiating at intramural basketball games at "The High." I and his classmates will be sure to raise a glass to Paul this summer as we gather to remember our good times together there. He will be missed. My condolences to your entire family including fellow UD Board Members Mike and Frank. Jeff Seregny###imported-begin###Jeff Seregny###imported-end##

“ Dearest Friends,

When Jesus walked amongst us, he told his friends that his Father's home contained many rooms and that he would see to it that one was prepared for each of them--that a room was prepared for Paul.

If this were not true-he would not have said so!

All my best...all my love, ALWAYS!

“ Dear Susan and all the Ostrowski family.

Please know Patty and I have all of you in our hearts, thoughts and prayers. While there are no words that can help the loss you must all feel,I do want you to know we will pray for Paul and the entire family. We truly and deeply feel for your loss. I do believe Dr. Ostrowski was certainly waiting at the gates of heaven to welcome his first born back into his eternal world. I guarantee my mom and dad were right behind Dr. Ostrwoski with a slew of Gesu kids and parents in tow. Paul will be missed here on earth and welcomed in heaven.
