Peter Hans Gernand of Cottrellville, Michigan, born May 12, 1945, in Darmstadt, Germany, a proud war veteran, devoted husband, and steadfast servant to others, passed away on September 7, 2025, surrounded by his family.

Peter lived a life defined by service, integrity, and love. He bravely served his country with honor and dedication, carrying those same values into every part of his life. After his military service, Peter continued to dedicate himself to his community as a police officer for 30 years, protecting and serving with courage, fairness, and compassion. Beyond his career, he was known for his generosity, kindness, and quiet strength—always putting the needs of others before his own.

He was a loving husband of Carol and the proud father of Paul (Cindy), Julie (Chad), Daniel (Donna), and Bethany. His legacy of love and wisdom lives on through his grandchildren—Christopher, Julianne, Zildjian, Elizabeth, and Mex—and his great-grandson, Vincent.

“ Dad once told me if anyone ever hurt his kids or grandkids he would literally take someone out. He said his PTSD was a get outta jail free card.

“ I was welcomed into the family over 20 years ago and Pete took me on as one of his own. Pete worked endlessly to help others in need. He never rested and was always a phone call away. He would drop what he was doing to help us or anyone else. I will miss his stories about all his adventures; from working as a Detroit cop to all his experiences in the military. My heart now has a big hole in it. Sorry we never made it to Germany with you Dad. We still plan on going to visit where you grew up someday. Love you pops!

“ My dad is the only guy I know that could lose toes to a circular saw. He was more made that he just bought his new shoes. We kept a red towel in the garage for when he injured himself tinkering so mom wouldn't have to get the stains out.

Pete was a compassionate man. His attendance at funerals of veterans he didn't even know is evidence of that. I'm fortunate that I knew Pete. We'll miss you soldier.
